

I HAD BEEN TO ABOUT ELEVEN DIFFERENT CHURCHES, YET I BARELY KNEW MY BIBLE

I used to be a nice person before I came to the Lord, I never drank a lot or did drugs and I did my best at school. Then I realized I had no right saying that. I was an awful person, I gave no respect to my parents and I swore when things got bad.

I remember when I received the Holy Spirit in a church that didn't believe in the full gospel. I was just seeking the Lord; I humbled myself and spoke in tongues. I didn't really have an understanding of what I had and continued with life being a hypocrite. I called on the Lord only when it was convenient and when I needed Him, my life was chaotic.

I had lost total respect for my family, and they had lost respect for me as well because I treated them like trash. The Lord changes you only if you let Him, and read the Word and build a relationship with Him by praying in the Spirit. Things always got really good when I genuinely did seek the Lord though.

When I came to Australia I knew I wanted to get a good church and I didn't know where to go, and I guess this was where the Lord knew that He could place me where He wanted me and knew I'd be obedient this time. I got rebaptised and for the first time in about 2 years I spoke in tongues again, and my life has changed since.

I've had plenty of times where the Lord's protected me. I had a 25 kilogram pallet fall on my head and I fell to the ground in pain, called on the Lord, stood up and the pain was gone. I ate Mum's sandwich that she made me and continued with work, 100% no pain instantly healed!

The Lord truly does keep His word, and when you walk learn to love the Lord and love to do things for Him.

I am a student at University and the Lord has blessed me with good grades. I never did great at school, even though I studied really hard. So I truly have a lot to praise the Lord about. If it wasn't for Him I'd be a total wreck!
